

Gas Safety Policy

Gas Safety certificates will be commissioned on all gas appliances/installations of SNPA occupied premises within 12 months of the previous certificate, or when a change of tenant might occur.

The Authority will only engage the services of qualified Gas Engineers who are registered on the Gas Safe Register to undertake all remedial works, repairs, installation, service of appliances/boilers and provide periodic safety certificates.

Prepared by:           Head of Property

Date:                    September 2016